Subject: This morning's appointment with Dr Bell

Dear Ms. McCambley,

RE: THIS MORNING'S APPOINTMENT WITH CONSULTANT PSYCHIATRIST DR PAUL BELL

In connection with the draft copy of Dr. Bell's assessment letter to Dr. David Cheyne GP, which you emailed to me last Friday, please know that I feel I need more time to consider the contents of this draft letter, before discussing them with Dr. Bell.

Consequently, I feel I cannot sensibly attend my appointment with Dr Bell at 10 am this morning.

Assuming I understood you correctly, when we spoke on the phone last Friday, it seems you have sent me a number of letters through the normal post during recent months. Please know that, to date, and as I believe I mentioned to you on the phone last Friday, I have never received any letters at all from you through the normal post.

After I have had some more time to consider the contents of Dr Bell's draft assessment letter to Dr. Cheyne GP, I will contact you again for the purpose of arranging another appointment to see Dr. Bell.

Yours sincerely,

William Finnerty.
