Dear Ms Jackson,

Thank you for your email of yesterday.

I feel very apprehensive about getting involved in discussions with you just now regarding my present situation, and this is largely because of the fact that the Northern Ireland Appeals Service has not yet completed my appeal relating to the sudden cancellation -- without warning and without notification -- of my Pension Credits payments on March 21st 2019.

I had hoped the Appeals Service would have completed the appeals process on February 14th 2020, and that they would have done so in a way which took meaningful account of the contents of the signed email printout I sent to them through the registered post on February 10th 2020, a scanned copy of which can be viewed at the following www location:

<http://humanrightsireland.com/AppealsServiceNorthernIreland/10February2020/RegisteredLetter.htm>

As I understand it, the Northern Ireland Appeals Service now requires a further submission from the Northern Ireland Pension Service, before my Pension Credits appeal process can be completed.

Additional information relating to this delay, and the associated Northern Ireland Appeals Service "Terms of Adjournment" made by the Tribunal on February 14th 2020, can be viewed in the scanned copies of the two items of correspondence I have received from the Northern Ireland Appeals Service -- dated February 18th 2020, and February 26th 2020 -- which I have placed at the following www location:

<http://www.humanrightsireland.com/AppealsServiceNorthernIreland/18February2020/LetterAndEmail.htm>

Allowing for the above, it would be much appreciated if you could please re-schedule the meeting you wish to have with me until sometime after the Northern Ireland Appeals Service have completed my Pension Credits Appeal, and informed me of the outcome. The Northern Ireland reference number for my Pension Credits Appeal is: BE/6784/19/45/O.

I look forward to hearing from you again regarding the request I have made in the paragraph immediately above.

Yours sincerely,
William Finnerty.
